Summary: Cloud's point of view when he goes on his date with Aeris

A Date

>By: Lady OceanStar

>I stood in my room
Solemn and silent

>Then Aeris burst through the door
She wasn't pleasantly quiet

She asked me about my promise

>And I was so plainly confused
She giggled sweetly and softly

>Then pulled me out of the room

>I seemed to be put on a leash
As she pulled me away

>She dragged me into the theater
And then we heard a bang

A man appeared out of nowhere

>And told us that we won
We could be in the performance

>Aeris giggled, "This might be fun!"

>I felt the butterflies in my stomach
As I stood there on that stage

>Aeris was now acting as a princess
And I laughed at her foolish charades

Then the play was over

>And we went for a ride on a train
We really didn't speak to each other

>Until she spoke my name

>We then stared at each other in silence
A smile on her soft face

>Oh God, she was so beautiful
Her eyes were full of grace

I loved her so much right then

>And then the train came to a stop
All the magic that was with me right then disappeared

>And all the grace went, "POP!"

>Then we seen Cait Sith
We tried to talk to him there

>he ran away and us after him
Putting back all of our cares
Cait Sith stopped and told of a secret
>And then we had no choice
We had to go to the ancient's temple

>Now I know it was a sad course

>Aeris wanted to come with me
She said she was the only one who'd understand
>I decided yes for an answer
I was such a foolish man
It's hard to go on without her
>But for her, Oh God, I will
And even though she's gone far away

>Oh, my Aeris, I love you still...
